We are making potato latkas and applesauce on December 17th. We are cooking them to celebrate a holiday called Hanukkah.

Curriculum by Zev Deladingco and Colby Rye

The whole class is working on a classroom mural. The mural will show the time line of life. It will include invertebrates, vertebrates, plants and the eras of life.

In January the first graders will start their spelling tests. They will bring home a sheet of paper every three weeks that has three spelling lists for three weeks. They should practice at home with a grownup and a spelling command card here at school. Also third graders will be giving and correcting spelling tests.

Everybody is working on word problems, fractions, money and time at different levels.

In our weekly read aloud, our current book is The Ghost of Blackwood Hall, A Nancy Drew Mystery. We will change genres with each book.

Tony Jar by Abbey Elwood

Tony is our janitor. He cleans every class every day. We want to show our appreciation for him. Our class will have a jar on the middle table. Please put any amount of money in the jar to support our janitor. Thank you !
