

Eagle Peak Newspaper
November 2014

Produced by the third year students
Editor: Kailee Van Handel
Art Director: Morgan Bryant

Dear Parents,

We are very excited to have our third year students complete their first newspaper of the year. They all worked very hard with great determination to complete this for you. The first two pages include classroom related articles. The remaining pages have games, jokes and other creative pieces.

Enjoy,
Jennifer and Sibyl

Parent Volunteers

By Samantha Whalley and Sibyl Buckner

Thank you to all of our October parent volunteers. Thanks to Camille Mahood and Heather Keyhantaj for providing our first cooking project. Yummy!!

For November the volunteers are:

Laundry-Asemi family; rugs and rags weekly

Pencil sharpening-Farrow family-weekly

Animal needs-Sung family-Romaine lettuce weekly

If you have any left over veggies, our guinea pigs would love it. They have a big appetite.

We need quite a bit of copying done. Could you come in for a half hour or so? Please let us know!

Parent Conferences and Observations

We hope that you all enjoyed your observation and conference. If you haven't made an appointment yet, please do so.

Field-trips

Our first field-trip will be held on Tues., December 16. Kathy Futterman, our field-trip coordinator will send an email requesting drivers.

On November 13, we will have an amazing presentation given by Safari Bonnie. She will bring numerous wild, but tame, animals! If your child is allergic to any animals let us know.

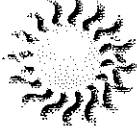

Yoga

As you may know, we have a yoga class on Thursday afternoon in our room. Your child is welcome to bring a yoga mat. Please label the mat with your child's name.

Namaste.

Jokes and Riddles by

Bret Futterman and Zev Deladingco

What are two things you cannot have for breakfast?

What can you hear but not see and only speaks when it is spoken to?

What ten letter word starts with gas?

What starts with an e an ends with an e and only has one letter in it?

What is always coming but never arrives?

What do you call a fish with no eye?

Why did the golfer wear two pairs of pants?

Who keeps the ocean clean?

What did the tomato say to mushroom?

Why did the hot dog turn down a chance to be a star in a movie?

How do bees travel?

Sharing

We have all enjoyed the interesting objects that have been brought in for sharing. Thanks for reminding your child to complete the sharing form. We are attaching another one for you.

We're also attaching a form for the birthday celebrations. We will not be able to have celebrations on Wednesdays. We have our Peace Education Meetings at the end of the day and we don't want to miss those!

Birthday Celebrations

Children enjoy sharing their birthday at school. We certainly encourage this but we ask that you follow a few guidelines to help make this a happy event.

1. Bring one photo for each year of your child's life. This can be attached onto a poster, in a photo album or individual pictures.
2. Include a brief description of each photo.
3. Also include one or two milestones or special events that occurred during that year, i.e. went on a vacation to Hawaii, baby brother Trey was born. See the form below. If you will be joining us for the celebration, we ask that you share the info with the class.
4. Treats are welcome but we must follow the Eagle Peak guidelines that state healthy, low fat and low sugar.
5. Bring 40 treats and all are identical, i.e. same flavors and same type.
6. Celebrations are held the last 30 minutes of the day except on Tuesday when the students are in PE/Art. On that day we will celebrate at 2:00 before PE/Art. On Wednesday we celebrate at 12:30 due to early dismissal.

PLEASE REMEMBER TO COMPLETE AND RETURN THIS FORM PRIOR TO YOUR CHILD'S CELEBRATION!

List vacations, schools, moves, birth of siblings, pets, first walked, talked etc.
Please come prepared to share.
