

Sharing Schedule
2013 - 2014

We encourage our students to share a special object which will help build speaking and reading skills. It is a very effective tool for learning. Since we have 40 children, we have given each child a specific day to bring a sharing object. The list is below.

Sharing objects should fit into cubbies or pack backs and should not be very fragile. They should have educational value such as books, collections, foreign stamps, foreign currency, cultural costumes and photographs of vacation destinations. If stuffed animals, trophies, found objects or books are brought, kindly include the attached Sharing Form. Without the completed form, we will give your child a form to take home and complete. The object can then be shared the following week.
